RISKY ENTANGLEMENTS?

Contemporary research cultures imagined and practised

OPENING EVENT
Wednesday, June 9, 2010 / 18:00 / Main Hall
Brave new research worlds? Living and working in contemporary research Panel discussion with Philip Campbell (Nature), Ulrike Felt (Univ. Vienna), Helga Nowotny (ERC), Giulio Superti-Furga (CeMM), Ruth Wodak (Lancaster Univ.)

MORNING SESSIONS
Thursday, June 10, 2010	9:00 – 10:00 Plenary	Main Hall	Responsibility lost in translation? New public management of research as ontological politics Ulrike Felt / University of Vienna (A)
	Coffee break
	10:30 – 12:30 Parallel Sessions	Main Hall	Collaboration and the social organization of research work Chair: N. Vermeulen Delegate or perish: Competitive federal grants and the current organization of research and training in the biomedical sciences in Canada A. Saloni / Chemical Heritage Foundation Philadelphia (USA) Scholarly collaboration, affective labour and digital technologies S. Wyatt, S. Dormans and S. Antonijevic / Virtual Knowledge Studio and Univ. Maastricht (NL) Growing into academic landscape: PhD students in molecular biology A. Červinková / Academy of Sciences (CZ) Latent individualities, latent collectivities: Engaging with future and present forms of individuality and collectivity in life science research R. Müller / Univ. Vienna (A)
		Chapel	Growing into science Chair: M. Penkler Young. Academic. Life scientist. Inventing ways of manoeuvring uncertain research landscapes L. Sigl / Univ. Vienna (A) When the “old world” disappears.... The young Polish scientists mobility and the modification of hierarchical relationships in life-science environment I. Wagner / Univ. Warsaw (PL) Mobility, corporate funding and the capitalist policies of academic research J. Hunsinger / Virginia Tech (USA) Growing into what? On the (un-)disciplined socialisation of young researchers in transdisciplinary research A. Schikowitz, J. Igelsböck and T. Völker / Univ. Vienna (A)
Edu4you		How engagement changes research cultures and practices Chair: M. Fochler The risky entanglement of ELSA: Experiences and prospects M. Radstake and A. Nelis / Univ. Nijmegen (NL) Open labs – biotechnology labs as a site for speculative forms of public engagement T. Kerridge / Goldsmiths, Univ. London (UK) Engaging with sustainability technologies and doing STS: Risky entanglements? E. Pauwels / Woodrow Wilson International Center for Scholars (USA) Transient entanglements: Geographies of knowledge brokering M. Meyer / MINES – ParisTech (F)
Lunch break
